BIOGRAPHICAL NOTE

Wikipedia article: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Kate_Llewellyn

Kate (Katherine) Jill Sky Llewellyn was born at Tumby Bay on the Eyre Peninsula, South Australia, on 15th January 1936. She was educated at locally, gained a Registered Nurses' Certificate from the Royal Adelaide Hospital in 1958, and graduated with a Bachelor of Arts in History and Classical Studies from the University of Adelaide in 1978.

Llewellyn has worked as a nurse, joint owner and director of Llewellyn Galleries in Dulwich, Adelaide 1965-1972, and owner and co-director of Bonython Galleries, North Adelaide, 1971-1972. She worked on the Unley Planning Study 1978, and in the Women's Advisory Unit of the Premier's Department 1979, before becoming a full-time writer. She has taught creative writing courses and been writer-in-residence at Australian colleges, universities and writers' centres, and has been invited to speak at schools, colleges, universities, libraries, literary festivals and as guest speaker at various public and private functions. In 1981 she was National Secretary of the Poets' Union of Australia.

Llewellyn is a poet and writer who came to writing during her undergraduate years. She published her first book of poems in 1982, and her first prose work in 1987. She has travelled widely and written travel books based on these experiences, as well as writing on gardens and gardening, food and people. Her book reviews, criticisms and essays are published widely in Australian poetry and prose anthologies, magazines and newspapers. Her work is widely reviewed, is the subject of biographical works, and critical analyses have been written regarding her work and contribution to Australian literature. Her work appeals to a wide popular audience and to women in particular. Her poetry has been broadcast on several Australian radio programs including the ABC, 5MMM, 3RRR and Writers' Radio 5UV.

Llewellyn has been awarded:

Australia Council Grants, Awards and Fellowships, Literature Board Fellowship, Non-Fiction; Poetry, 2005. Note: An award of $80,000 to write an autobiography and a book of poems about Australian explorers
Galley Club of Sydney Awards for Excellence in Publishing and Print, Australian-Printed Book of the Year, 2006: winner for Playing with water

FAW Anne Elder Poetry Award, 1982: joint winner for Trader Kate and the elephants

Bunday Prize for English Verse, 1975: winner for Teeth and other verses.

Llewellyn is the author of books of poetry, travel, autobiographies, essays and talking books, including:
